icals in the rooms of the phonograph company, on the board walk, between ler of the currency shows that The National Bank of High Point, has the in Congress have completed an organization, with Representative Bell, of caucus; Representative Shuford, of Senator Harris, of Kansas, as chairman of the congressional committee.

Missed Some Property.
When the Lillian Tucker Company's stage effects were being loaded into the wagons on Saturday night some of the properties were missed. A search revealed that they had been carried away to some distance and dropped.
It is not definitely known who attempted to appropriate the property, though there is evidence against a certain party.

Guilford College News.
An interesting lecture on the Wonderful X-rays.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.
Guilford College, Feb. 7.—Prof. H.
L. Smith, of Davidson College, delivered a lecture on the X-rays here last Saturday night. His explanation of the nature of the X-rays was so plain that every one felt that they knew all about them.
First he explained what the X-rays were. Then he showed how they were generated. After this he showed the practical workings of the X-ray apparatus. Pieces of metal and other substances imbedded in wood were made visible to the audience. Coins in a purse could be plainly seen. A photograph of the bones in a person's hand was taken, also one of a purse with coins and a knife in it. After this everyone in the audience was given an opportunity to see the bones in their hand or arm. Everyone was astonished at the plainness with which they could see the movements of the different bones in their hands. The lecture was unanimously voted a grand success.
Miss Henryanna C. Hackney, a teacher in the High Point Graded school, came home Saturday for a short visit and also to take in the X-rays lecture.
Miss Rena Worth, of High Point was here Sunday.
Misses Deloatch, Moore, Vaughn and Tayner, of the State Normal and Industrial College have been visiting the Misses Griffin of this place for a few days.
The college pond has furnished great sport to the students for several days. The ice has been fine.

Marshall Mott Knocked Out SHERIFF CALL SAYS HE CANNOT BE RE-NOMINATED.

Declares the Civil Service is Doomed and that Ewart Will be Confirmed.
Amputation Necessary.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.
Winston, Feb. 7.—Sheriff Call passed through the city today and says that, from reliable authority the civil service will be knocked out in Washington in eight days; that Ewart will be confirmed today, all opposition having been withdrawn, and Mott, he says, has no show of re-nomination for the solicitorship; that John Benbow, of this city, will be the nominee of the party for solicitor and J. R.
Henderson will be appointed revenue commissioner immediately upon Ewart's confirmation, at a salary of $2-000. The county, he declares, is anti-Mott.
Walter Fulk, who was hurt on the Southern Saturday evening at 5:15, Dr. Gray, the attending physician, says is very badly injured, and it is not improbable that he will have to amputate his right leg, just below the knee.

The Event of the Week.
The Sherwood concert has the field all to itself this week. It deserves to have, as it is the musical event of the season. Mr. Sherwood is a great artist and his support is of the best. If the weather continues like this a packed house will greet them. There will be parties from several neighboring towns, the music students of Greensboro Female college will attend, and Greensboro will turn out a good crowd. The seats are now on sale at Gardner's, only a little canvassing was done, just enough to guard against loss. Those that bought seats are requested to call for them at Gardner's Tuesday. The money will be collected for these choice seats if they are not used, so if you have bought and cannot go you had better dispose of your seat.

At The Academy.
Lillian Tucker and her company made their final appearance at the Academy of Music Saturday night in "Led Astray." They were greeted with a packed house and the acting was quite clever. Altogether the company gave good satisfaction while here. The Robin Hood, Jr., company did not have a sufficient audience to justify staging their spectacular tragedy at the opera house and so the play was called off and the box receipts returned.

OIL ON TROUBLED WATERS.
Mr. Rockefeller Preparing For More Philanthropy.

THE SHERIFF MARTIN TRIAL.
Defendants May Take French Leave or Spend Their Nights in Jail Until The Verdict.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.
New York, Feb. 7.—The Standard Oil Company is arranging to water its stock again by increasing the face value to four hundred per cent. The company has hitherto been paying public dividends of ten per cent and secret dividends of thirty per cent in addition. The stock has been selling at four hundred dollars per share.

TRIAL OF THE SHOOTERS.
By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.
Wilkesbarre, Pa., Feb. 7.—There is a revival of interest in the trial of Sheriff Martin and his associates for the sensational devel-Saturday and the expectatheir startling occurrence the crowds which gathered usual about the court house much speculation on the that some of the defendant are not under ball might ta leave or that some of them might be unable to furnish bonds and be forced to pass their nights in jail until the jury should bring in its verdict.
Judge Woodward reprimanded the attorneys for the passage at arms on Saturday and said that had he heard it he would have dealt with them in a summary manner. He also criticised some of the reporters, saying that some reported the case as it should be and others were making astounding misrepresentations. Justice of the Peace Jones West, of Hazleton, was the first witness. He told of the interview he heard between the sheriff and the strikers and how the deputies clubbed the latter off the road. He then went over to Latimer to see how the marchers would be received and saw the deputies line up and fire after the sheriff had come to the front with the papers.

Gompers' View of It.
By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.
Boston, Feb. 7.—Samuel Gompers was interviewed after the secret conference of the leaders of the labor organizations and said that unless the hostile factions of the textile unions came to an agreement quickly the strike at New Bedford would avail little.

Strikers Not Weakening.
By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.
New Bedford, Feb. 7.—Secretary Ross, of the Spinners' Union, denies that there is any truth in the statements relative to the weakness of the strike. He says the general body of the operatives is not weakening.

Closed the Universities.
By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
Vienna, Feb. 7.—All the German universities and high grade schools have been closed by order of the Governor until March the twenty-third.
This is done to prevent a recurrence of the recent disturbances.

Sentence Confirmed.
By wire to THE TELEGRAM.
Philadelphia, Feb. 7.—The state supreme court today confirmed the finding of the Montgomery county court in condemning to death Chas. Kaiser for the murder of his wife at Morristown on October 26, 1896.

Public Schools Close.
By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.
Fish Kill, N. Y., Feb. 7.—The public schools here have been compelled to close because of scarlet fever.

Did Not Strike.
By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.
Fall River, Feb. 7.—The mill machinists did not go out on a strike as anticipated.

SOUTHERN MILLS LEAD.
Report of Mr. Coolidge on His Return to Boston.

Boston, Feb. 5.—T. Jefferson Coolidge, treasurer of the Amoskeag mills, of Manchester, has returned from a trip to Florida. He says of the general mill situation:
"On the maintenance of the reduction in wages depends the existence of the New England mills, and striking against a reduction is a mistake on the part of the operatives who are attempting to kill the goose that lays the golden egg. If the mill hands desire to get out of employment they are taking the light course in striking."
"Nearly all the Southern mills are prosperous. The biggest mills are earning large dividends, but are rarely paying 6 per cent., as they are reserving their excess profits to increase their quick capital."
"The southern cotton mills get some advantage from cheaper coal and also cheaper cotton, but the wage question is the great factor in their favor. If it were not for the lower wages paid in the south our mills would compete with them without trouble."
"Southern mills, having been built later, are superior to the average northern mill. The best southern operatives turn out just as much work as the northern operatives and are just as intelligent."

WILL HAVE ELECTRIC LIGHTS.
That New Depot to be Built Here by the Southern.

The Telegram learns that as soon as the winter weather breaks, work will be begun on the Southern's new passenger depot in this city. This is good news, refreshing news. The old depot and waiting rooms are totally inadequate to accommodate the volume of passenger traffic at this place and a new, convenient, comfortable and commodious station will mean much for the Southern and it will mean much for Greensboro.

We are also informed that the new building will be lighted by incandescent electric lights furnished by a plant to be put in by the company, and made comfortable by a steam heating furnace.

Pardoned a Pair.
The Governor pardons John Lead-ford and Calvin Leadford, who were convicted of retailing liquor at the fall term, 1897, of Mitchell Superior Court and sentenced to six months on the Rowan county road gang. He makes this endorsement: "Prof. J. J. Britt, representing the prosecutors; Solicitor Spaighour and several hundred of the best citizens of Mitchell county ask for executive clemency in this case.
On account of the youthful age of both of the prisoners, the ill health of one of them and the strong petition of those who were instrumental in securing their conviction I grant the pardon.
They have already served three months of their term.—Col. Olds' correspondence."

To Boycott Yale.
New York, Feb. 5.—At the close of the ninth annual convention of Young Women's Christian Temperance Union, of New York and New Jersey, held in Jersey City today, a resolution was adopted to the effect that in view of the disclosures of the extensive sale of liquor to students of Yale, in New Haven, the members of the union would use their influence to dissuade all young men of their acquaintance who are contemplating a college to select some other institution, "where they may be surrounded by a more healthy, moral atmosphere and subjected to fewer temptations."

Withering Reproach.
There was trouble between the diplomatists.
"So, sir," said one, "you seek to cast discredit on my management of the war against Cuba."
"I do."
"Perhaps you think you could have managed better?"
"Unquestionably. I could have gotten whipped for half the money."
—Washington Star.

Rumor Not Confirmed.
By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
London, Feb. 2.—Up to this time there has been no confirmation of the report that Russia and Germany have succeeded in negotiating a loan with China.

Notice.
It is urgent that State and county taxes be paid at once. The money is needed to meet current expenses and state taxes. Will advise land for taxes soon. Fair warning to all.
Very Respectfully,
J. A. HOSKINS, Sheriff.

THE CROWD HISSES M. ZOLA
No Demonstration in the Court Room Took Place

MUCH INTEREST IN THE CASE Trial of the Novelist Will be Confined to that Passage of His Letter Denouncing Courtmartial.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
Paris, Feb. 7.—A vast gathering assembled around the palace of justice this morning to witness the arrival of M. Zola and the other important persons connected with the trial of the great novelist. The court opened at noon with the room packed. No demonstration occurred in court. Zola was hissed by the crowd when he appeared. After the reading of the indictment the advocate-general explained that the charge would be strictly limited to the passage in Zola's letter denouncing the Esterhazy court martial.

Supplied.
"I desire to bring attention to a new invention," said the door-to-door merchant. "It's a snow shovel that doesn't make any noise."
"We have one," answered the woman who had opened the door. "I regret to say that owing to the extreme indolence of the men in this family our snow shovel hasn't made a sound this winter."—Washington Star.

them both. Mr. Vantory sent the old lenses

THE CRAZE FOR LAW.

Among the many fallacies of a political and economical nature—they are epidemic—there is no one more manifest, no one more fraught with possible consequences of evil than the craze for law. The tendency to legislate has grown with phenomenal rapidity within the past few years.

Take the present by way of illustration. There is now pending in congress, or before congressional committees, two bills, the passage of which would effect every citizen of the country in the direction of a direct curtailment of his liberties. They are not measures that are designed for any common good, to subvert any public end, but are intended to redound to the good of private individuals. One of these bills is the anti-scalping bill, and the other is the Hogshead postmaster bill.

Undoubtedly scalpers give the various railways a great deal of trouble, but it is not quite apparent why, for their convenience, the citizen should be deprived of any jot or tittle of his liberties. The citizen has troubles of his own. He in turn invokes the arm of the law to compel the railroads to give him something for nothing. Meanwhile the statute books are becoming more and more bulky and the sphere within which a man is free to move, grows more and more narrow. The equitable reasons why a piece of paper calling for so many miles of transportation should be made non-transferable, while one calling for so many dollars is transferable, do not appear of themselves.

The bill to compel the citizen to buy his stamps and mail his letters at the postoffice nearest to him has already been touched on in these columns. These two bills are mentioned merely to show the road we are traveling.

The most alarming thing about this tendency to over-legislate is the indubitable proof it gives of a decline in that robust independence and trust in his own good arm that has been the distinguishing characteristic of the American—so much so that the very name of American suggests it. It is an evidence of degeneration.

If this sort of business is to continue we may expect in future a varying series of measures, vindictive and spiteful in intent and purpose, aimed at the one party or the other as control of the legislative machinery changes. The governing process will become more and more cumbersome and expensive and the ends of justice harder and harder to subvert.

The well-meaning citizen will need a lawyer for a guardian angel to keep him out of the courts or the penitentiary.

Germany's quarantine against American horses will bring home the beauties of Dingleyism to another large section of the American people.

A new seal is to be engraved for the treasury department. Most people had thought that the needs of the treasury department lay in another direction.

If Mr. Dingley had only inserted a clause imposing a specific duty of good dimensions on foreign lecturers that nine million a month deficit in the revenues would not yawn before the republican party.

The charge of Mr. Bailey of Texas against Mr. Proctor that the latter had tried to silence him is a magnificent tribute to the daring of Mr. Proctor. The boy who stopped the leak in the dyke with his hand will hereafter cease to draw as a hero.

We keep track of the men who are getting pay for their professed principles in voting for Mark Hanna's man for Senator.—News and Observer.

This is the first intimation we have had that our esteemed contemporary had in contemplation a universal progressive legislative biography. Good luck to the Observant one in this Augean venture.

The throne of Hawaii has been deprived of her; her enemies are now basking in the executive smile at Washington; paramount commissioners have ceased to seek her out; free advertising has begun to decline; cosy little chats with the Gray Gables fisherman are things of the past; but life still holds some sweets for Lily—she has wrenched a feather from the queenly adornment of her curly locks and has written a book. The Old Baseballist is Independent.

Chicago, Feb. 5.—"I refuse to accept anything in the shape of a gift. The public owes me nothing, I am not old and am no pauper. I can earn my own living. Besides that, I am by no means out of baseball."

Such is the declaration made by former Captain-Manager Adrian C. Anson, today. Part of it came in the form of a letter to A. G. Spalding, and was read at the meeting at the Chicago Athletic Association to establish an Anson testimonial.

Salisbury to Resign?

London, Feb. 5.—A rumor of the approaching resignation of Lord Salisbury has been received, and is forming a topic of gossip in the political clubs.

The True Remedy.

W. M. Repine, editor Tiskilwa, Ill., says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home as it we have a certain and sure cure for coughs, colds, whooping cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

"Strange," 'tis Passing Strange"

That all who suffer do not use

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy

Hopewell, Mecklenburg Co., N. C.

December 1, 1896.

Last June I was suffering terribly from some bladder trouble which was so severe and extreme that the physicians said an operation would have to be performed and the stone crushed.

I dreaded it so much and had so much faith in Mrs. Joe Person's wash that I determined to try it first and see what it would do. I applied it three times a day and in thirty-six hours the inflammation subsided, the swelling and enlargement was reduced and the stone passed without any trouble. The stone was large and no one can know except those who have so suffered what it was. I do not believe I could have stood an operation and believe I would have died had it not been for Mrs. Joe Person's Wash. If any one is suffering from this bladder trouble let them try it. My pain would be so great that I would have to be put in a tub of hot water to relieve those terrible paroxysms of pain. It made a perfect cure of me. Oh, that everyone could realize what medicine is within reach and try it, how much suffering would be relieved. Mrs. Person herself does not say as much for the Remedy as it deserves.

Laughs and Grows Poor.

A Louisville, Ky., dispatch says: The most remarkable case ever reported by the physicians of Kentucky is one at Lancaster. Aunt Nannie Mays, an old colored woman, laughs from morning till night, and unless stopped by a narcotic from night till morn. The only thing that stops her is chloroform. She laughed till she has become emaciated and almost lifeless, yet she still breaks into the same seemingly hearty laugh with every other breath. She has been laughing three weeks and says she is utterly powerless to stop it. Medical men from several cities are going today to see the old woman and try to give her permanent relief.

Did Not Come Here.

The report published in the Charlotte press some time since and copied here that a colored woman named Estelle Carson who had been exposed to small-pox contagion there had escaped and come here has turned out to be a mistake. A telegram received here from Greenwood, South Carolina, states that she is at that place.

Faggett Flogged Jler.

A colored man named Oscar Faggett flogged his wife about midnight last night; this is not the first time; it is said that they fight and scratch whenever they feel like it. Oscar was drunk last night. The liquor was the fighting kind and he was bound to fight. This congenial and loving couple live over in the eastern section of the city somewhere, and it is said they sometimes go on a spree together.

Policeman Weatherly saw Faggett up the railroad track early this morning and it is presumed he did not want to be at all intimate with Mr. Weatherly, as he took hasty and informal leg bail. He is said to be a sorry fellow, and has already served a term or two on county roads.

NO SAN JOSE SCALE HERE.

The Department at Washington Decides the Matter.

When Prof. Brown and myself examined Greensboro for the San Jose Scale we were sure we had found it on Gaston and Edgeworth streets. I had never seen the San Jose Scale in the winter time when it was in its dormant condition, but from what I had seen and examined I felt sure it was the true scale. The landscape gardener, Mr. Withers, who has been in Greensboro for some time, also pronounced it San Jose Scale, and said he was in California when it broke out there and had seen it often and was well acquainted with it. Samples of it were sent to Prof. Massey, state entomologist, who was in doubt about it, forwarded the sample to Prof. Howard, chief entomologist at the department at Washington, and he decided that it was not San Jose Scale but was Chionaspis Lintneri, and the treatment for it should be the same as for the San Jose Scale. It is a bad scale but does not spread rapidly like the San Jose, but should be exterminated. I am glad that it has turned out so, and can say now, after a pretty thorough examination, that Greensboro is clear of the San Jose Scale, and all nursery men of the state are and every one has certificate that is required by law, signed by Prof. Withers, chairman, and Prof. Massey, entomologist. (Signed) J. Van Lindley, Member of the Commission.

RUN OVER BY A TRAIN.

Young Plan Horribly Mangled Just This Side of Winston.

Passengers on the train coming in from Winston reported a shocking affair that occurred about a mile this side of that place on Saturday evening. A young man named Fulk and a friend were walking on the track. As the train approached they separated one stepping off on either side. Fulk attempted to cross the track in front of the engine to his friend when the engine struck him mangling him in a most horrible way. Both legs were broken and he was otherwise injured. The train picked him up and backed into Winston where he was placed in the hospital for treatment. One peculiar incident was that three of the passengers on the train at the time agreed that they felt distinctly the shock of the train striking him.

One of the Best.

As number 36 northbound approached the depot in Greensboro today two well dressed and prosperous looking traveling men reached for their grips to prepare to get off, when one of them said to the other:

"Are you going to stop in Greensboro?"

"Yes," said the man addressed, and it is my first trip to Greensboro.

What kind of a town is it?"

"One of the best in the South," the first speaker replied emphatically.

And this is the opinion of many more who visit Greensboro in one capacity or in another.

Miss Davis Violinist.

Musical Courier, Chicago: Miss Mary Davis, already an artist, played in a manner which delighted all musicians present.

Commercial Gazette, Cincinnati, Ohio: The College choir was assisted by the talented young lady violinist, Miss Davis. Her playing showed great finish and feeling. Her legend was a sad, sweet story, most admirably told.

Times-Republican, Marshalltown, Iowa: Miss Davis is a violinist of rare ability. With Sherwood.
